Jillian Bender was a pretty spoiled history major from a rich family who danced for a professional basketball team to get her sexy kicks. But she had also taken some hard licks. She had been kidnapped and held for ransom over a year ago and now she traveled with a bodyguard everywhere she went since then. When it almost happened again only the chance intervention of an ex-soldier named Brock Trenton saved her, and with two dead bodies on the streets of Houston they fled the scene of the crime with the police, the criminals and the media all looking for the two of them. Jillian discovered what hot pursuit really meant. Her mysterious savior agreed to be her bodyguard and she had to use her body and wits to keep him where she wanted him. But what the mystery man wanted was never revealed as they raced across Texas and caused their own sexual affairs to go deeper into drama and mystery. He was a man who caused bodies to fall. And she fell deeper and deeper into him. Brock Trenton was a man on a mission and the pretty blonde tried to hold on as her family fortunes came closer to explosion. And in Mexico the question was who danced to whose music before gunshots ended the sexual songs.
